CRCEA Delegates, Affiliates and Conference Attendees:

Welcome to the _____ Conference of CRCEA. The host county representatives from _____ have been planning this event for well over a year and have a terrific few days ready to go.

As expected, there will be sessions of serious importance, there will be sessions of general interest, and there will be interactive sessions to give and receive ideas that will hopefully help your local association.

But our time together will not be just business. There will be time to see and visit _____ County's historic area, attractions, governmental areas, as well as the wonderful restaurants.

_____ has planned a great Tuesday evening dinner and entertainment, along with prizes galore. It's a perfect opportunity to socialize, network and relax with your peers and friends.

With serious business and general information on our agenda, I anticipate a conference that will not put anyone to sleep. However, we must ensure that all items get handled, so I will keep the agenda going and, along with the host committee, to ensure that the _____ Conference will be what each of you expected it to be.

On behalf of all the CRCEA Officers, I welcome you to _____ County.

Fraternally,

E. F. "Skip" Murphy, President
